

1603 Morningside Avenue
Pittsburgh, PA 15206

412-370-0125
412-327-2469

DAVID A. HALL SR

Objective: To secure a full time position using my experience as a Union Carpenter Journeyman

EXPERIENCE

2000 - Present

Greater Pittsburgh Carpenter's Union Pittsburgh, PA Carpenter Journeyman - Local 165

- *Reads and interprets blueprints and drawings
- *Utilizes a variety of hand tools, drillers, sanders, saws and other equipment with expertise
- *Constructs, builds and maintains scaffolds, concrete forms and other items
- *Removes walls, installs partitions and steps; alter buildings or rooms or add to existing structure using all tools of carpenter trade
- *Marks, cuts and shapes materials to prescribed measurements
- *Performs complex, non-routine carpentry assignments as requested using specialized knowledge and skills

EDUCATION

June 2004 - Greater PA Carpenter's Union
-Journeyman Certificate

May 2004 - CCAC Allegheny Campus
-Certificate of Carpentry Apprentice

June 2001 - Commonwealth of PA - Department of Labor
-Carpenter Apprenticeship Certificate

1981 Graduate Education Development Test Pittsburgh, PA

References

Available upon request